

ORCA PROBUS CLUB

Comox Valley

NEWSLETTER

July 2021

Well, things are finally returning to normal. The Orca Probus management team held its first face-to-face meeting in over a year. A beautiful morning.

We have full expectations that the Orca Probus Club will return to regular meetings starting on Tuesday, September 14th at the Legion. Details will be sent out in August.

ACTIVITIES

We are still looking for those interested in joining others for recreational kayaking. Please contact Jerith Jones

The Club held two hiking adventures in June. Jim led a group up into the Perseverance Creek area. They even had a little refreshing rain on the way.

Tim led another group on the Bevan trail, up to the Comox Lake Bluffs.

Save the Date!

Tuesday, August 10th is the date Orca Probus will gather for a picnic social. Location to be advised.

Every vaccinated member is welcome to attend!

The Orca Reading Group continue to meet. They have decided to change the name of the group to –

The Book Worms

Anyone interested in joining please contact:

Join the ExecutiveTeam!

The nominating committee continues to seek individuals or couples to assist in the Management group. This team meets monthly to plan and organize for the Club's monthly meetings. The duties involved are minor and members should view this as an opportunity to join a social team, meet members and grow friendships.
